Grey Falcon & Letter-winged Kite 6-day birding tour

9-14 Sept 2019

Grey Falcon and Letter-winged Kite are amongst Australia's most sought-after raptors. During our many outback birding tours we've located these species reliably enough to be able to offer this special tour. We should have multiple sightings of both species. This is a reasonably fast-paced trip deep into the outback, with early departures and late finishes each day, while covering over 2500 km in 6 days. We'll look for other good outback species as well, including Black-breasted Buzzard, Inland Dotterel, Flock Bronzewing, Australian Pratincole, Eyrean Grasswren, Cinnamon Quail-thrush, Gibberbird, Orange and Crimson Chat, Banded and Chestnut-breasted Whiteface, Honeyeaters including Pied and Grey-fronted; and witness spectacular outback desert scenery along with the famous rock formations of the Flinders Ranges. The long-range outlook is for a return to wetter conditions in 2019 so it's shaping up to be an excellent year for outback birding - don't miss out!

Tour starts & finishes: Adelaide, SA.

Scheduled departure & return dates:

- 9-14 Sept 2019 (only 1 departure in 2019)
- Any other time as a private tour

Price: AU$3,899 all-inclusive (discounts available).

Grey Falcon & Letter-winged Kite 6-day birding tour

ITINERARY

Day 1: Mon 9 Sept '19. Pick-up from your hotel (own arrangements) in Adelaide city or near airport. Travel north, birding for Slender-billed Thornbill, Elegant Parrot, Redthroat, Banded Stilt, Chirruping Wedgebill and other species. Lyndhurst, on the edge of the Strzelecki desert, is our final destination where at sunset, we look for Inland Dotterel. Overnight Lyndhurst Hotel (private en-suite cabins). Meals included: L, D).

Day 2: Tue 10 Sept '19. A big day as we bird the Strzelecki track for Chestnut-breasted Whiteface, Cinnamon Quail-thrush, Chirruping Wedgebill, Gibberbird and Rufous Fieldwren. We stand a good chance of finding other sought-after species here such as Orange and Crimson Chat, Black-breasted Buzzard and many more. But of course the main target today is Letter-winged Kite, of which there is usually a small colony each year. Overnight Lyndhurst Hotel (private en-suite cabins; meals included: B, L, D).

Day 3: Wed 11 Sept '19. We depart around sunrise to search for any species still needed. Afterwards we continue deeper into the outback, where the tracks traverse endless open stony plains interspersed with mostly dry watercourses. We look for Budgerigar, Red-backed Kingfisher, and have a good chance of Inland Dotterel. The sand dunes harbour Eyrean Grasswren. Not far from here we hope to have our first encounter with Grey Falcons. An artesian bore-fed wetland usually holds Brolga and a raft of waterbirds, including crakes – in amidst desert-like scenery. Overnight in a remote outback roadhouse (basic, clean rooms with shared facilities; meals included: B, L, D).

Day 4: Thu 12 Sept '19. The entire day is spent birding the local area. We're likely to have multiple sightings of Grey Falcon while other species we've encountered here are Australian Pratincole, Flock Bronzewing, Pied and Black Honeyeater, Eyrean Grasswren, Banded Stilt and more. Overnight in a remote outback roadhouse (basic, clean rooms with shared facilities; meals included: B, L, D).

Day 5: Fri 13 Sept '19. After a morning bird walk and last chance of Grey Falcon, today will be mostly spent travelling south, to re-visit any birds we may have missed, or we may detour through the Flinders Ranges for spectacular scenery, Grey-fronted Honeyeater, Yellow-footed Rock-wallaby... Overnight Outback Motel Hawker (en-suite motel rooms; meals included: B, L, D).

Day 6: Sat 14 Sept '19. In the morning we visit the bird-rich Arid Lands Botanical Gardens (with Pied & Black Honeyeaters if we're lucky!), and spend time looking for the turquoise race of Splendid Fairy-wren, Black-eared Cuckoo and Redthroat. We'll follow the coast, looking for Banded Stilt, Elegant Parrot, Adelaide Rosella etc, to arrive in Adelaide late in the afternoon. Meals incl.: B, L. Please don't book domestic flights departing before 6:30pm today.
